

Pantelleria Is Blasted By Big Warships

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
Allied warships have swelled the assault on the Mediterranean island of Pantelleria, it was announced today, bombarding the so-called "Italian Gibraltar" twice within 48 hours in what may be the prelude to a landing attack.
Pantelleria lies 45 miles east of Cap Bon, Tunisia, and about half way across the Sicilian strait toward Sicily.
In Allied hands, the island would serve as a convenient stepping-stone for invasion of either Sicily or the Italian mainland.

Non-Stop Shelling
Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said Allied naval forces shelled the island yesterday afternoon and Sunday night, reinforcing the aerial havoc inflicted on the Italian outpost day after day, virtually non-stop, ever since the fall of Tunisia May 12.
Naval salvos fell on the barracks and artillery batteries, General Eisenhower's command said, and although there was some retaliatory fire from the shore in yesterday's daylight attack, the Allies suffered neither damage nor casualties.
Once again, the double-barreled thrust pointed up Allied control of Mediterranean waters without interference by the shore-bound Italian fleet.

The communiqué said American warplanes also battered at Pantelleria and returned to the assault on Italy's other chief island strongholds of Sicily and Sardinia, hammering supply ships, railways, docks and a seaplane base.

On Other Fronts
Other world events at-a-glance: Battle of Atlantic—British Admiralty chief said May was war's best month for number of Axis U-boats sunk, more enemy submarines destroyed in last 12 months than in whole war period before; Berlin admits sharp drop in U-boat sinkings.

Russia—Red Army fliers pound German airdromes, both sides probe for weak spots.

Southwest Pacific—American long-range bombers drop 36 tons of explosives on Japanese base at Lae, New Guinea; lone U. S. Flying Fortress, attacked by 16 Japanese Zeros, shoots down five enemy planes and returns to base.

Burma—Monsoon rains flood Arakan front.
U. S. West Coast—Army disclosed Japanese plane made sneak incendiary attack on Oregon timberland eight months ago.

MELLOTT'S GO TO STATE COURT

An appeal to set aside an opinion of the Adams county court in the action brought by B. Rush Mellott, Gettysburg R. 5, and his son, Nelson, against Mrs. Katherine Tuckey, Wenksville, has been instituted with the state superior court, it was learned today.

The county court's opinion, handed down April 17, found that no damages could be paid Ellory Mellott for injuries suffered in a collision with Mrs. Tuckey's machine because, the opinion stated, Mellott was negligent in the operation of his car.

The appeal to superior court made by John P. Butt, Esq., for the Mellotts holds that young Mellott was not negligent and that the accident was caused by the negligence of Mrs. Tuckey. The appeal asks that the opinion of county court be set aside allowing re-opening of the case here. The matter will be brought before the Superior court either at Harrisburg or Philadelphia. An attempt is being made to have it made one of the first matters to be brought before the court during its forthcoming session.

RE-ELECT HEAD OF CHILD UNIT

H. Johnson. Mr. Diehl's appointment was confirmed by the county commissioners at their session this morning.

Miss Charlotte B. Parrish, of the Harrisburg Child Welfare office, spoke on the purpose and duties of advisory committees. Discussion of various phases of the county work was among the business before the board.

WLB Halts Coal Negotiations And Refers Issue To Roosevelt

County Tops May Quota In Three Weeks

Adams countians oversubscribed the May quota of Series "E" bonds by $17,895 in the first three weeks of the month Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the county committee, announced today.

This is the highest mark set by this county in the current war and is believed to set a record in ratio to population, for the entire state.

The first quarter's sales totaled $94,443, the second quarter dropped to $12,018 and the third quarter mounted to $21,881, making a total for the first three weeks of $128,342 an "over the top" figure of $17,895 with the fourth quarter sales unreported as yet.

May's sales in Adams county are expected to reach an all-time high for any one month since the sale of war bonds started with the exception of the month of April when the Second War Loan drive was on. During that period Adams county's subscriptions totaled more than three million dollars, greatly exceeding by far the highest expectations of the most optimistic of committee members.

"No Let-up"
"There has been no let-up on the part of our committee members in the promotion of war bond sales," Mr. Thomas said today, "and at the same time the response from the residents of this all-American county has been at the same fast tempo and in the same generous spirit as it was when the county was passing through its darkest hours of defeats and the call and appeal for the purchase of more war bonds was at its highest.

"It is further proof that while the fruits of victory in our African clean-up of the Axis, the bombardment of Italy the objective of which is to drive Italy out of the war, the clean sweep of the Island of Attu, the glorious Chinese victory over the Japanese and the smashing of Jap concentrations in the South Pacific still ring in our ears, Adams countians realize that it requires more and more billions of dollars to carry this war to an early and victorious conclusion.

Thanks Citizens
"I wish that I could personally thank every one cooperating with and participating in these drives but that is impossible. However, I take this opportunity to publicly express my sincerest thanks and appreciation for the splendid response from our good citizens. Adams county never has been found wanting and never will be. That we will continue to do our bit is a certainty to me," Mr. Thomas added.

FARM LABOR OFFICE OPENS THIS MORNING

Opening today of an Emergency Farm Labor office in the Topper building beside the court house, in the office formerly occupied by Dr. W. P. McKnight, was announced by M. T. Hartman, Adams county farm agent.

No announcement was made as to the personnel of the office which will include a field director and secretary. Persons to fill the offices have been interviewed by members of the Emergency Farm Labor committee recently set up in the county and a person has been designated for each office pending approval by Pennsylvania State college.

All of the field directors of farm labor and secretaries in the state are employees of State college, it was stated. A prominent farmer and educator has been proposed for the field agent's position, Mr. Hartman said.

USES Changes Role
Responsibility for organizing and directing a farm labor program has been assigned to the Agricultural Extension services of the land grant colleges by recent congressional action, Mr. Hartman pointed out.

Farm labor placement has been one of the functions of the United States Employment service. The U. S. E. S. will discontinue its program of local recruitment and the placement of farm labor in Pennsylvania, except as it cooperates with the Agricultural Extension service in the interstate recruiting and transportation of farm labor, Hartman explained.

Mr. Hartman reports that the Agricultural Extension service will function through farm labor offices now being established in each county. These offices will be under the direction and supervision of the county farm agents. A county Emergency Farm Labor committee composed of farm leaders, urban business interests, and school authorities will serve in an advisory capacity and assist in making the program as efficient as possible.

Need More Helpers

The need for food and feed crops is extremely important this year, Mr. Hartman pointed out. Many thousands of skilled farm workers have left Pennsylvania farms for the armed forces and for more remunerative positions in industry. If the need for food and feed is to be met, it is necessary to mobilize persons who can be made available for farm work, especially during the growing and harvesting season. Very few available persons

Fifth Futile Jap Attack On West Coast Disclosed

Port Orford, Ore., June 2 (AP)—The public learned today of the enemy's fifth futile attack on the west coast, a sneak incendiary raid by a lone airplane more than eight months ago.

Believed launched from a Japanese submarine last September 28, the plane flew over the Oregon coast in early-morning fog so dense a Forest Service lookout was unable to see the ship although it droned directly by his tower on a mountain near here.

The lookout, Lauren S. Giebner, followed the sound of the motor as it moved northeastward. He heard a blast and saw a flash, as if a bomb had been dropped. When the fog lifted two hours later, he spotted fire in a heavily timbered canyon three miles away.

This was the second reported incendiary attempt on the forests of this isolated southwestern corner of Oregon. The Army previously announced a small plane flew in from the sea near Brookings last September 9 and dropped two bombs.

This plane also was spotted by a lookout and the fires controlled quickly. Japanese markings were found on fragments of the incendiary bombs.

The Army held up Giebner's story of the Port Orford raid for military reasons until Chief Forester Lyle F. Watts, asking additional funds for protection of the forests, disclosed the attack in testimony before a Senate Appropriations subcommittee in Washington.

The previously disclosed raids, last year, were as profitless as the air attacks.

120 ARE GIVEN DIPLOMAS AT H. S. EXERCISES; 9 IN SERVICE

One hundred and twenty members of the senior class of Gettysburg high school were graduated Tuesday evening at the annual commencement exercises held in the high school auditorium.

Nine of the seniors who had left the class during the last year to enter the country's service received diplomas with four of the boys present to accept the certificates in person, the others were awarded in absentia.

The four present were soldiers William Coston, Walter Spear, Morris Steinour and William Timmins. The others in service are William Long and Paul Thomas in the Navy; Ronald Enoch, Merchant Marine, and Charles Fridinger and William Harness, Army.

Beliefs Important

Dr. Thomas L. Cline, head of the English department at Gettysburg college, spoke on "The Future of America." Doctor Cline, who had addressed previous commencements at the high school, in 1923 and 1933, compared the mood of America at the present time with its viewpoint at the previous times he had been a speaker. He pointed out that there has been a great increase in idealism and told the students that the question that will determine their future is "What do you believe?"

"The beliefs of Germany made her a menace to the world; the beliefs of the people of France in the Maginot line and the French army made it an easy conquest for Germany, and the beliefs of English leaders in appeasement found England unprepared for war," Doctor Cline said.

"America has always believed in peace and has usually believed in isolationism. The question all the world is asking now is whether America will return, as she did the last time, to isolationism, and the signs are all there that senators are already planning to begin another fight for isolationism.

Future of America

"Do we believe that power has responsibility? If we do, let us wait until our boys come back. Let us plan out our responsibility now."

"A nation believes what the mass of individuals believe," Dr. Cline concluded, "and on what we believe rests the answer to the future of America."

The stage was decorated with a huge "V" of red and white flowers and flags of the United Nations. Theme of the commencement was "We pledge Allegiance."

Tribute to Service Men

Excerpts from the sixth symphony of Tchaikowsky were played by the school orchestra as an overture followed by selections from Wagner's operas for the processional. The 115 seniors present marched in grey scholastic gowns and caps from the rear of the auditorium to the front, with members of the senior choir marching onto the stage. The choir sang, "God of Our Fathers," followed by the invocation by the Rev. Howard S. Fox of Trin-

RAILROADS ARE SUBJECT FOR HISTORIANS

Meeting for their last session until September, members of the Adams County Historical society gathered in the court house library Tuesday evening, for a discussion of early transportation in this area led by Dr. Frederick Tilberg, program chairman, who presented a paper on "The Cumberland Valley Railroad, a Competitor of the Tapeworm Road."

Doctor Tilberg described first a plan to connect the Susquehanna and Potomac rivers with a canal in 1825. He described also the rivalry between Philadelphia and Baltimore for central and western Pennsylvania trade and of various efforts to build a railroad into the Cumberland valley.

In 1828, he said, a railroad route from Harrisburg to Chambersburg via Carlisle was surveyed and in 1831 the Cumberland Valley railroad was incorporated. The road was completed to Carlisle by 1837 and its first locomotive was hauled to Carlisle on a six-horse wagon.

Discussion that followed the paper brought from Dr. Robert Portenbaugh, society president, the observation that the Cumberland Valley was one of the oldest railroads in the country, was once considered among the nation's finest railroads and claimed the distinction of having used the first sleeping car.

Thaddeus Stevens' "tapeworm" line which was to reach to Gettysburg and not Caledonia, as is sometimes supposed, was described as a potential competitor of the CV line. The engineering undertaken on the "tapeworm" line was declared Tuesday to have been "monumental" and a small scale counterpart of the famous "horseshoe" curve near Altoona was to have been built.

It was pointed out that the present Western Maryland line west of here uses very little of the old "tapeworm" line route. The present line rounds Jacks mountain at a level about 200 feet below that of Stevens' railroad for which the state appropriated $700,000, drawing the attacks of Stevens' political enemies.

Members of the society suggested that the group should make a trip to the "tapeworm" right-of-way for

No Contract While Miners Remain 'Idle'

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The War Labor board checked the coal mine walkout back to President Roosevelt today "for such action as he deems appropriate" and told the disputing parties to stop their contract negotiations.

UMW President John L. Lewis and the operators' representatives had just begun on fresh efforts to settle their dispute, which has resulted in half a million miners staying away from work in the war vital industry.

No Pact During Stoppage

However, said the board unanimously, "any agreement on the issues by the parties while the workers are on strike" and the negotiators are subject to "strike coercion" will not be considered or approved.

The miners and the operators, informed of the board's order, went back into joint session immediately without making any comment. They had suspended meeting briefly while waiting for an expected announcement from the board.

The text of the telegram:

"By unanimous vote of the National Labor board the board declares that the existing strikes and stoppages of work in the nation's coal fields constitute an unwarranted violation of the no-strike pledge and a defiance of the board's directive order of May 25, 1943. Therefore in conformance with the procedures of the War Labor board which have been uniformly applied in all past cases in which either party violated the no-strike, no-lockout pledge and defied a directive order of the board it is hereby directed that all negotiations between the parties on the issues referred to them by the directive order of May 25, 1943, in this case shall cease immediately until the mine workers return to work in compliance with the board's directive order of May 25, 1943. The board further notifies the parties that any agreement reached on the issues by the parties while the workers are on strike and under the pressure of this strike coercion will not be considered or approved by the board. The board is referring this case to the President for such action as he deems appropriate."

Report In 10 Days

The message was addressed to Lewis, Edward R. Burke, president of the Southern Coal Producing association; Charles O'Neil, chairman of the operators' negotiating committee of the Appalachian joint conference, and Ezra Van Horn, chairman of the joint negotiating committee.

The May 25 directive ordered resumption of collective bargaining on the major issues, such as portal-to-portal pay, the six-day week, charges for equipment used by the miners, and certain contract wording.

The order called for a report to the WLB within ten days and said "the parties shall continue the uninterrupted production of coal under the contract terms and conditions that existed on the prior to March 31, 1943."

A graduate of the West York high school, Captain Miller entered the WAAC in July, 1942, and reported to the Officer Candidate School, Fort Des Moines, Iowa, in August. She was commissioned a Third Officer in September. In civilian life she had been a secretary and had held administrative positions with the state and federal governments. She formerly served as head of the Hallam Red Cross unit.

STRIKES WILL DELAY END OF WAR; HIGH COST

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Uncle Sam's fighting-machine solely in terms of the men who are on actual combat service in the Army, the Navy and the Air Force.

That probably is natural, for they are the ones who risk their lives on the firing line in defense of their country. Still they're only part of the machine. They are an absolutely vital part, of course, but behind them and integrated with them are many parts which also are essential to make the vast machine run.

The soldiers and sailors and airmen are the experts who wield the instruments of death against the enemy. But other elements of the machine have to equip and maintain the fighting men or the battle front will collapse.

A thousand and one industries fabricate the armaments; farmers produce food; various units transport these essentials to the theater of war by land and sea and air, and still another goes down into the dark caverns of the earth and produces—with arduous labor and great danger—the coal without which much war manufacturing must cease and transport must be disrupted.

"A Damnable Tragedy"

Failure of any one of these units may mean stoppage of the whole machine. It may mean defeat! At best it's likely to protract the war. That means unnecessary death and maiming in the fighting ranks, and additional suffering at home.

The fortunes of war sometimes are capricious, and a nation may encounter adversity which it is unable to ward off. Even an act of nature, like a flood, may play havoc with part of a war-machine. Rarely, however, does an all-important unit collapse as the result of a dispute among the people comprising it.

It would be a damnable tragedy if any quarrel should interfere with essential war production at this critical moment. That's irrespective of the merits of the argument on either side of a controversy.

There's nothing that counts excepting to keep the war-machine running and the flag flying. Even individual lives don't matter, much less material affairs.

Hope To Reduce Casualties

A general and his staff can't quit because of difficulties with the troops. And the men in the ranks can't throw down their guns because they don't like the orders of the commander. The two of 'em have to make a go of it whether they want to or not.

In moments of national peril every man, woman and child is in the service of the country. Each one is in the same position as the fighting man, so far as duty is concerned.

Time is a vital element in warfare. Stoppage of a single unit for even a few days may react disastrously on the battle front.

General Harold H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces, declared yesterday at West Point that the Allies will end the war "and end it soon" by bombing. By ending it quicker "we will cut down the casualties."

Danger of Long War

What a grand goal to work for! But we could fall far short of it if our production were seriously impeded.

This is a great moment in the war. The United Nations are rushing at Hitler for the kill. We need every single ounce of striking power which we can develop.

Delay in essential production might change the course of the war. It might easily protract the European upheaval, with consequent delay in undertaking major operations against Japan.

Apart from everything else, this means more casualties among our boys. Every minute counts. Thousands of men can die in the last thirty minutes before the cease fire is given. Even the final sixty seconds take their toll. They did in the last war and will in this.

The bride wore a satin gown with long train and a finger-tip length veil and carried a white orchid. The church was decorated with white rosebuds, white snapdragons, palms and ferns. Before the ceremony there was organ and harp music.

A reception was held at the church. The bride taught music at Bethlehem. She was graduated from the Conservatory of Music. The bridegroom is employed by the Monsanto Chemical company, Dayton, Ohio.

The couple went by airplane to New Orleans. They planned to visit at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Gilbert Saetre. The couple will reside in Dayton, Ohio.

FOOD STOLEN FROM COTTAGES

Members of the state police continued today their investigation of robberies of five cottages along the Conewago creek near New Oxford sometime between May 23 and May 29.

The cottages were owned by Robert Weirman, McSherrystown; Margaret Louck, Beaver, Pa.; William Mummert, Hanover; Clarence Lough, New Oxford, and Richard Wolfert, Hanover. Only coffee, sugar and canned goods were taken from the cottages. Entrance was made by ripping screens from porches and then breaking windows, police said.

The theft was discovered by Vernon Myers, Gettysburg, who went to his cottage for the Memorial Day week-end and discovered the torn screens. He notified owners who then called in the police.

None of the summer colonists along the Conewago had apparently been at their cottages during the week prior to Memorial Day.

SCOUTS ENJOY CAMPING TRIP

Boy Scout troops 77 and 78 took part in an intertroop camp on Wolf Hill over the week-end, with the camp starting Friday evening and ending Sunday morning.

Three patrols from Troop 77, the Eagle, Panther and Pine Tree, made up that contingent. Herbert Sollenberger was patrol leader for the Eagle patrol with four members present. Sydney Poppay, Jr., was patrol leader for the Panther patrol with eight on hand, and Jack Ridinger, acting patrol leader for the Pine Tree group with three scouts.

The eleven scouts from Troop 78 present were divided into two patrools, the Eagle, headed by Patrol Leader Joseph Redding and the Flying Eagle with Pete Kuhn as patrol leader.

Officials at the camp included Scoutmaster Jack Cessna of Troop 77, and Scoutmaster Edward Kerrigan and Assistant Scoutmaster Robert Baltzley of Troop 78.

Among activities at the camp, which was planned and directed by the patrol leaders were council fires, flag raising ceremonies, a hike to Cavalry field and games.

Both troops are planning another intertroop camp this summer at which a patrol of scouts from Columbia under the direction of William Ridinger will be special guests, it was stated.

It is not unusual for four, six or eight ballplayers to share a room this year, the hotels are that present were divided into two pa-

POINTS WORTH KNOWING

Those in need or will be in need of any electrical extensions such as hen houses, steer stables, dairy barns, etc., or equipment in any of these, should get in touch with their contractor as soon as possible in order that he may get the materials on hand as soon as possible.

Material is now being issued on an allotment basis and he must be able to distribute it throughout a quarter in order to get it at all. Wiring is still being limited to only what is essential and vital to the war effort.

One of the vital things is to have equipment safe and operating in full capacity. Damaged wiring or fixtures should be replaced at the earliest opportunity.

Wires that sag so much that the wind will cause them to twist and overlap will cause plenty of trouble. Broken wireholders cause added strain on wires that are liable to give way just when needed most.

Give your electrician and contractor a chance to plan his work most efficiently by giving him as much time as is possible. Report emergencies as soon as they occur. Do not wait until nine at night to report an emergency that occurred at nine in the morning.

Don't put pennies behind the fuses when one continues to blow out, that is unless you want to collect your fire insurance.

Cardinals Nip Brooklyn In 12 Innings; Jess Flores' Streak Is Ended

SENATORS HALT INDIANS IN 10 INNINGS, 3-2

By JUDSON BAILEY
(AP Sports Writer)

The National league is expected to have a stupendous scramble for the pennant every fall as a matter of course, but this year the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals are staging a spring show that may very well dwarf anything that can happen later.

After dividing a four-game series at Brooklyn last month and a doubleheader in St. Louis Monday, they waged into each other again yesterday like their lives depended on the outcome and at the end of 12 innings of almost unbelievable baseball the raging Redbirds beat ah 11-9 victory and were within half of a game of first place.

The two teams made 35 hits, 20 by St. Louis and 15 by Brooklyn, paraded a total of nine pitchers to the mound, and passed the lead back and forth like a hot tip on the second floor.

Crucial Game
The two rivals are ticketed for the final game of the series tonight and on the result will depend whether the Dodgers or the Cardinals are in first place tomorrow.

Pittsburgh beat the Boston Braves 5-4 in 14 innings and the Cincinnati Reds stopped the New York Giants 3-1 to set up a triple tie for third place between the Reds, Braves and Pirates.

The Philadelphia Phillies pounced on the last place Chicago Cubs for their second triumph in three games 7-2 with old Si Johnson pitching seven-hit ball.

Action in the American league was limited to two night games in which Washington whipped the Cleveland Indians 3-2 in ten innings and the Detroit Tigers came from behind to beat the Philadelphia Athletics 5-3, ending a seven-game winning streak for Jesse Flores.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)
Harry Walker, Cardinals—Hit two-run homer in 12th inning to beat Dodgers.

St. Johnson, Phillies—Curbed Cubs on seven hits.

Huck Geary, Pirates—Stole home in 14th inning to beat Braves.

Ellis Clary, Senators—Singled home run in 10th inning to whip Indians.

Pinky Higgins, Tigers—Hit home run in eighth inning to send Detroit ahead of Athletics.

Man Takes 100-Mile Walk For Vacation

Harrisburg, June 2 (AP)—Frank Tozer, 64, of Harrisburg, rested today after walking what he said was 100 miles in 24 hours over Memorial Day to prove that "travel restrictions can't prevent people from getting away on vacations if they really want to go."

Tozer listed his itinerary as a round-trip to York (55 miles), a five-mile walk through Harrisburg and forty crossings of the mile-long bridge across the Susquehanna here.

Mrs. Dempsey In State Of "Collapse"

White Plains, N. Y., June 2 (AP)—Trial of the Jack Dempsey-Hannah Williams divorce case was delayed today when her attorney told the court that Mrs. Dempsey was "suffering from a complete nervous collapse."

Referee J. Addison Young adjourned the case until 1 p. m. to hear a physician testify as to Mrs. Dempsey's illness.

Her lawyer, Gerald Donovan, said it would be a week or more before Mrs. Dempsey could appear in court.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 2 (AP)—Comeback record: Ernie Lanigan, the international league's historian, figures this probably still stands as a record baseball comeback. . . . Back in 1888 George Haddock, one-time battery partner of Connie Mack, lost 20 straight games for the Troy, New York club. Then he went to Washington (and no cracks, please, about the Senators still getting that kind of hurler), and lost two more there.

In 1891 and 1892 the same guy had bounced back to become a 30-game winner with Boston in the American association and with Brooklyn. . . . Another record, maybe? . . . Jimmy DeMaret picked four different partners for a recent amateur-pro golf tournament at Detroit's Plum Hollow club the other day and the four "teams" tied with best-ball scores of 68. Jimmy, himself, shot a 69.

RIGHTIOUS INDIGNATION
When the Chicago White Sox blew into Philadelphia recently, the clubhouse attendant chalked the name "Frisch" on Jimmy Dykes' locker. . . . Jimmy promptly exploded. "Take that off of there," he bellowed. "I'm no Frisch. That Frisch is the kind of fellow who is mean to umpires and gets thrown out of ball games."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Orlo (Hoofbeats) Robertson, the pride of Winfield, Kansas, is the new general sports editor of The Associated Press, replacing Herb Barker, who now has the bigger job of seeing that your favorite newspaper gets all the best news first.

Although there may not be any extra bus service to Randall's island for the AAU track championships, Dan Ferris points out that the walk across the bridge isn't any longer than from the station to Belmont park. . . . and who says you can't bet on a foot race if you're really determined? . . . Helen Dettweiler, who won all the women's golf titles in the Washington, D. C., sector before she turned pro, is due to get her wings soon in the Ferry Command. . . . The new football coaching combination at Milwaukee's Shorewood high is Bill Olson and Lloyd Johnson. And, of course, they promise there'll be Hellzapoppin next fall.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Tommy Fitzgerald, Louisville Courier-Journal: "We wonder if Count Fleet ever has the feeling that somebody is following him."

SERVICE DEPT.
Pvt. Irving Kintisch, now stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, has been elected captain of the New York university track team for next year. His teammates figured he deserved the honor although he was called for active duty when the current outdoor season was just starting. . . . When Lieut. Bob Dunbar, former Auburn basketball mainstay, crashed while flying over a South American jungle, his rescuer was Lieut. C. V. Grace, also a former Auburn student. . . . former British Davis cup tennis players, Charles Hare and Bunny Austin, both are stationed at Atlantic City, New Jersey. Hare in a medical detachment and Austin taking basic infantry training. Hare hopes to be able to play in the summer grass court tournaments. . . . White Hlad, the former Michigan State hurdler who has been running for the University of Chicago while taking an Army meteorology course there, has been ordered to withdraw from competition.

SOMETHING FISHY
When Coast Guardsman Gregory Reeser of Cincinnati returned to San Francisco after a year in Alaskan waters, he brought an appeal for fishing tackle from the soldiers up that way. . . . On Amchitka island, he reported, he saw men fishing with shovels—and that didn't mean they needed them to pile up tall fish stories. "They were actually scooping fish out of the streams—that's how plentiful they are," he said.

BRIDGE LOST AND MONEY

Philadelphia, June 2 (AP)—The Delaware River bridge between Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., had a net operating deficit of $40,683 for the first four months of 1943.

Joseph K. Costello, secretary and manager, in making his report, blamed travel restrictions.

BILL COX IS BIGGEST TRADER

Chicago, June 2 (AP)—The biggest trader in baseball today? It's young Bill Cox, new owner of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Since purchasing the Phils less than four months ago, the wealthy 33-year-old lumberman has added 12 players, parted with four and disposed of some of his ready cash—all probably behind-the-scenes handiwork of veteran Bucky Harris, new field generalissimo of the Phils and a "boy wonder" in his own time.

Even so, Cox's only counterpart today is Branch Rickey, ex-St. Louis Card and present Brooklyn boss. In their one face off, young Cox walked off with four Dodgers without giving up a player at a time Master Swapper Rickey had eyes on several Phillies.

And yesterday in a straight swap of outfielders with the St. Louis Cards he obtained three players—Coaker Triplett, Buster Adams and Dain Clay (who will report from the Cards' Rochester farm)—for his Danny Lthwiler, a hitter whose clouting has fallen off recently, and Earl Naylor.

Today there already were rumors another Phil deal, involving Triplett, was in the offing.

That's fast work, but Cox says speed as an essential to success is the only thing about baseball of which he is certain. And speed, he added, was the main asset of all three players obtained yesterday.

OWLS TIE WITH WILMINGTON

(By The Associated Press)

The Hagerstown Owls moved back into a tie with the Wilmington Blue Rocks for first place in the Interstate league last night by defeating the York White Roses 8 to 7 while Wilmington was dropping a 3 to 2 decision to the Trenton Packers.

The Packers pushed over a run in the last of the ninth to take the decision after the Blue Rocks had tied the score in the first half of the same inning. Previously Wilmington had taken 3 straight games from Trenton.

The Owls also won their game in the ninth, on the strength of Elmer Weinschneider's home run with a man on base and one out. York had taken a one run lead in the eighth after fighting uphill all the game.

The scheduled game between the Lancaster Red Roses and the Allentown Fleetwings at Allentown was postponed.

MOVIE ACTOR ON MISSING PLANE

Lisbon, Portugal, June 2 (AP)—A British Airways liner which started for London yesterday with Leslie Howard, the actor, as one of its passengers, is missing, it was reported here today. The report was without official confirmation.

The plane, which also had Alfred Chaeenball, firm director, among its 12 passengers, was reported in one account to have been shot down yesterday morning in the Bay of Biscay at a point about half way between Lisbon and England. The plane had a Dutch crew.

Among other passengers were three women, each accompanied by a child, one of them two years old, who had recently been repatriated from the United States.

Reports here said the plane had not reached England and all attempts to contact it had failed.

Aviation circles were particularly concerned over the fact that weather reports indicated a rough sea which would reduce the chances of the passengers escaping or staying afloat for long in rubber boats. A search for rubber boats was reported to be underway.

Man Lost When Boat Capsizes

Erie, Pa., June 2 (AP)—Coast Guardsmen dragged Lake Erie today, seeking the body of a man whom fishermen saw clinging to a capsized boat 500 feet from shore.

The boat, found later off the Lawrence Park Golf course, capsized during a heavy rain and windstorm which swept the city for 30 minutes Monday night.

Gas From Heater Asphyxiates Man
Warren, Pa., June 2 (AP)—J. L. Smith, 57, was accidentally asphyxiated by gas from a hot water heater in the basement of his home, Coroner Ed Lowrey reported today. The coroner said Smith apparently had lighted the gas to warm water for a shower. Police, called by neighbors, found him lying face downward on the basement floor. He was a son of the late Levi Smith, pioneer oil refiner.

KUCZYNSKI TO BEGIN THURSDAY

Philadelphia, June 2 (AP)—Bert Kuczynski, who stepped off the University of Pennsylvania campus yesterday with two important papers, his diploma and a contract from the Philadelphia Athletics, steps right up to the big league firing line tomorrow.

"I'll pitch the boy against Cleveland tomorrow," said Connie Mack, putting an end to talk that he hired Kuczynski primarily for postwar "insurance." Bert is subject to call at any time in the Marine corps reserve.

Captain and end of last year's Red and Blue Football team and star pitcher and outfielder of this season's co-champions of the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball league, Kuczynski joins a long line of Penn baseballers who have made the big jump direct from campus to big leagues.

His last predecessors were Don Kellett and Johnny Jackson, signed by the Boston Red Sox and the Phillies, respectively, in 1934. Kellett is now freshman athletic director at Penn.

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The nation's farmers, looked to for more food than ever before, now may obtain the more ordinary equipment simply by certifying that they need it.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. 10c and 25c.

To Tap Mid-West Gasoline Supply

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Inland states may be tapped of their gasoline supplies to help out the Atlantic seaboard area where, Secretary of the Interior Ickes says, stocks have hit "bottom," and will stay that way for weeks.

"If we can bring in additional gasoline from other parts of the country to relieve the situation here, that is what we are going to do," Ickes, the petroleum coordinator, asserted in a radio address last night.

An Evening Thought

Most men are afraid of a bad name, but few fear their consciences.—Pliny.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

GARDEN THOUGHT

I walk my little garden round,
The one spot left where peace is found,
And none through deadly fire must grope.

The last resource of faith and hope,
And think 'tis surely meant that we
Better than mortal are to be.

Only a skill that is divine
Could shape and tint the columbine
Or in the self-made garden bed
Grow roses yellow, white and red
And teach each root and branch to choose
What yellow, white and red must use.

Within that little garden spot
Nothing is won by shell and shot.
The smallest bloom expression seems

Of art beyond man's highest dreams,
Of wisdom and of skill too great
For man to grasp or imitate.

The Great Creator fashions things
Like butterflies with golden wings
And birds for song, and flowers and fruit,
But man still fashions guns to shoot
And spends his thought, his strength,
In making things to crush and kill.

KNOWLEDGE OF OUR "ONE WORLD"

There is going to come at last one fine thing from this tragic war. The average person is going to want to know more about every other country. Here in the United States and Canada we are a part of a great Continent—and yet how little we have known about the progressive countries to the south of us!

There are no more inspiring books than the ones devoted to the struggles of Simon Bolivar and Martin—each a Liberator of a great part of South America from Spanish rule. Martin was the great hero of Argentina, and Bolivar of almost all of the western part of South America. Much of this country to the south of us is enshrined in culture and untold wealth and commercial possibilities await development.

No public man is doing more to inform us to the north about these people to the south of us, than Edward Tomlinson, whose years of contact down there, and whose intimate knowledge of its rulers and peoples, is being spread through the medium of his books, lectures and revealing radio talks. Here are peoples with whom we should be one forever!

I do not believe that too many books can be written about the many countries of the world so as to inform the most ignorant. Never at any other time in all the history of the world have we been so ready and willing for intimate contact. Great ocean flying planes—to carry as many as four hundred human beings—are now being designed and worked out as entirely practicable. Sooner than we now imagine China will be nearer for contact than Chicago and New York were but a few decades ago!

There is no possibility that we are ever to live on any other cosmic world, so that it behooves us to make plans to live cooperatively, happily on the only one that we will ever know about. And the more we know about each other the better for all. It wasn't so very long ago that a great English publisher suggested that the English people should know more about the United States. Well, happily that is being

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Goes to Training Camp: William Weaver, of Baltimore street, is one of the fifteen boys from Gettysburg college who left on Saturday to take up the summer course at the Reserve Officers' Training Camp at Plattsburg.

Fair-Redding:—At the Lutheran Parsonage in Emmitsburg Tuesday evening, Cleason G. Fair and Miss Myrtle A. Redding, both of Gettysburg, were married by Rev. Charles Reinwald, D.D.

Safe Across: Mrs. Charles Myers, of York street, has received word that her son, Linn W. Myers has arrived safe overseas.

Military Holds Sway in Parade: Soldiers of three wars participated in Thursday's memorial celebration at Gettysburg. Headed by a battalion of tankers from Camp Colt, the procession to the cemetery was distinctly a military event. There were in the line veterans of the Civil War and the Spanish American War. Captain A. J. Halton, of Camp Colt, was marshal of the parade.

At the services at the rostrum Dr. T. C. Billheimer, presided. The prayer was offered by Dr. J. A. Singmaster, and John D. Keith, Esq., read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. The oration was delivered by Bishop William F. McDowell, of Washington. The benediction was pronounced by Dr. J. A. Clutz.

Takes Position: Norman Irvin, who recently completed a course in pharmacy at Temple University, Philadelphia, and passed the state tests for qualified assistant pharmacist, has accepted a position at the Stallsmith Drug Store.

Are Married at Evening Wedding: At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Weaver on Carlisle street, their daughter, Miss Marie Blanche Weaver, and Lloyd Addison Durbin were married Saturday evening at nine o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. E. Stock-slager, pastor of the Mt. Joy Lutheran church.

Ambassador in Town on Sunday: Gettysburg had a distinguished party of visitors Sunday in the persons of Ambassador Jusserand of France, Madame Jusserand, Secretary of Agriculture Houston, Mrs. Houston and Robert S. Brookings. They arrived shortly before noon and took luncheon at Mrs. Buehler's on Carlisle street. After a brief trip to the more important parts of the battlefield they left on their return to Washington.

Will Fix Prices in Local Stores: A meeting of all the wholesale and retail dealers of foodstuffs, and of all the millers and bakers in Adams County, was held in Gettysburg at nine o'clock Thursday morning, when the prices on all staples were fixed. The meeting was called by Food Administrator Markley acting upon instruction from the United States Food Administration.

Patriotism at Commencement: Thirty-three graduates of the Gettysburg High School were awarded their diplomas at the annual commencement exercises in Xavier Hall Tuesday evening. The note of service was prominent in all the exercises of the evening.

The following were on the roll of honor: Blanche Stoops, Ruth Spangler, Helen Drais, Kenneth Hartman, Emilie Scharf and Gladys Raymond. The class roll was as follows: Philip Bower, Gladys Burgoon, Hannah Cook, David Daugherty, Helen Drais, Kenneth Hartman, Marie Hartman, Blanche Hoffman, Wilda Holtzworth, Lulu Kimmel, Emanuel King, Corporal James Kissinger, Isador Lestz, Radford Lippy, Henry McDonnell, John McGaughy, Mary Miller, Robert Oyler, Gladys Raymond, Ray Rice, Emilie Scharf, Ruth Spangler, Frances Stahl, Ruth Stallsmith, Blanche Stoops, May Stover, Miriam Taylor, Grace Constance Weaver, Ada Weikert, Frances Wible, Leroy Winebrenner, Ruth Zeiders.

Soissons Falls: Rheims Totters: London, May 30.—In their violent attacks on the 30-mile battlefield running from Soissons eastward to the region northwest of Rheims, the German armies are continuing to force back the French and British forces on nearly every sector.

The fortified town of Soissons, the extreme left flank of the Allied battle line, has been occupied by the enemy, although the French are still holding tenaciously to its western environs, through which emerge the railway lines leading to Paris and Compeigne.

According to the German official communication, 25,000 prisoners, taken care of now, and the peoples of the continent of Europe are learning more about Canadians, Australians, New Zealanders, and others of the free countries of the world, than they have ever known!

May those famous words of Daniel Webster—"Liberty and Union, Now and Forever, One and Inseparable"—apply anew to this new "One World" for which we fight and plan and pray!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Pensions For Poets."

Bills Spending $21,000,000 Of State Funds Made Law

63 BILLS SIGNED BY MARTIN; 77 AWAIT ACTION

Harrisburg, June 2 (AP)—Signing of 63 measures appropriating more than $21,000,000 left 77 bills on Governor Martin's desk today awaiting action.

Measures allocating $7,730,000 and $452,425, respectively, to state-operated institutions and homes as recommended by Martin in his budget last February were among the appropriation bills approved.

Other large appropriations included: Aid for financially distressed school districts, $2,000,000. Occupational disease compensation, $1,250,000. Pennsylvania State college for general state authority rentals, $731,000.

Vetoed 15 Bills
University of Pittsburgh, $1,376,000. The Governor, who now has signed 403 measures and vetoed 15, turned down bills providing for a $10,000 appropriation to the George Junior Republic association of Grove City and authorizing acceptance by the state as a gift from Pennsylvania State college, the Northumberland county home of Joseph Priestly, discoverer of oxygen.

Of the Priestly home, Martin said a $3,000 item for work on the structure was not included in the budget, while an $8,000 allocation for the Grove City association already had been approved.

Other appropriations approved are: Scotland Purchases Department of Military Affairs for maintenance and education of children of persons in armed forces, $20,000.

Purchase of land near state-owned tract containing James Buchanan's birthplace in Franklin county, $9,500. Acquisition of land adjoining Rockview penitentiary, Centre county, $6,800.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Groft, of York, visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Anna Mae Orndorff and Mary Weaver, of Baltimore, spent the week-end at their homes here. The Children of St. Joseph's parochial school presented their annual spring play Monday evening. It will be repeated this evening. It is composed of patriotic representations of the early settlers of our country and the present conditions existing, stressing the importance of buying War Bonds and Stamps. The concluding tableaux represents the Diamond Jubilee celebration of the Diocese of Harrisburg with the special tribute to the pastor, the Rev. Leo J. Krickman, who recently celebrated the 20th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

among them a French and British general, have been taken.

Seemingly, Rheims, like Soissons, also is doomed to fall into the hands of the enemy.

Camp Colt Men Hold Field Day: Under a sky which constantly threatened to pour a deluge of rain and spoil the entire proceeding, the tankers from Camp Colt on Thursday afternoon staged their first big athletic event.

The 329th Battalion won the large silver cup with sixteen points.

Army Trucks On Bus Duty In Utica

These Army trucks were used to transport workers from Utica, N. Y., to the Rome Air Depot, 15 miles distant, when a bus strike nearly paralyzed transportation in the industrial city. A score of these Army trucks carried about 2,000 workers to their jobs.

"B" AND "C" GAS RATIONS CUT; TO HIT BLACK MART

Washington, June 2 (AP)—The government's new "tough" policy on gasoline users in the arid east, signalled by a cut in B and C ration coupons from three to 2½ gallons each effective today, will be followed shortly by an attack on black market dealers in commercial "T" rations.

Third-quarter coupons for taxis, buses and trucks will be issued with a different marking from the present "T" symbol, and ODT spokesman said, but the new designation is being kept secret until the coupons are issued to thwart possible attempts at counterfeiting.

No Gas for Furloughs

A worker who cannot get to factory or shipyard on the curtailed ration, said OPA Administrator Prentiss M. Brown, will simply have to move closer to his job.

Asserting that "the gasoline isn't here," Brown revoked the special 5-gallon ration granted servicemen on furlough, and told boards to deny supplemental rations to anyone who lived "within reasonable walking distance of his work, regardless of car pools and lack of other means of transportation." The physically handicapped and those who must carry heavy tools were exempted from the latter provision.

Uncle Sam Expects 2,800,000 Victory Babies This Year

Prepare to bow down before Uncle Sam's Victory Babies. Two million, eight hundred thousand of them have booked passage with the stork for 1943. They're probably the most important generation in history, since to them will fall the task of remaking the battered old world.

Such distinguished babies deserve attractive mothers, which is one reason why the American dress industry has undergone a recent revolution in the general concept of maternity clothes.

Today's prospective mothers are younger and prettier than ever before. Many of them wear junior sizes, and demand junior styles.

No longer is the all-enveloping wraparound the uniform of young ladies-in-waiting. Nowadays shops are showing "expectancy" frocks as gay, youthful and deceptive as the country's best designing skill can make them.

For summer, nothing could be better than two or three crisp cottons, in gay colors, cut on becoming lines, for prospective mothers.

Modern doctors advise future mothers to lead as normal a life as possible before the baby comes.

So perk up, and look your prettiest for that important young individual who may be president in 1975.

London, June 2 (AP)—Britain has suffered 514,993 casualties in all ranks of empire armed forces in the first three years of war, Deputy Prime Minister Clement Attlee told Commons today.

Prehoda Family Is Battling Axis

Pittsburgh, June 2 (AP)—If Axis soldiers are superstitious they'd better steer clear of the machines of war the Prehoda clan is helping to build here, for with the Prehoda this war effort is a family affair.

Thirteen of them are turning out parts for war machines in the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company's east Pittsburgh plant—seven brothers and a sister of the older generation and three boys and two girls in the second generation.

They're fighting the Axis with such jobs as boring mill, milling machine and turret lathe operator, die makers, shippers and production clerks.

William Prehoda was the first to work for the company—he started in 1903 and aided the war effort of 1917-18—and Thelma was the thirteenth, taking a position this year when the manpower shortage brought a call for women war workers. Altogether the 13 represent 230 years' service with the firm.

HEYDAY OF AUTO RACING IS PAST

San Francisco, June 2 (AP)—Tommy Milton, old time automobile racer and twice Indianapolis speedway winner, believes that post war competitive car racing will never regain the interest it once held—because the public now is accustomed to airplanes traveling from 400 to 700 miles an hour.

Consequently, he said, he disagrees with those who predict a revival boom in auto racing after the war. He expressed his views at a private luncheon yesterday in his honor.

Milton envisioned a chain of highways exclusively for the use of autos, however, spanning the continent and reaching deep into South America. He predicted specially constructed arterials, with no crossings, on which a driving fee would be charged and where speed would be unlimited.

He said the car of the future would be lighter, constructed liberally of plastics and light metals, and more economical. This output, he declared, would not begin until manufacturers had taken up backlog slack on pending orders.

Abbottstown

Abbottstown—Miss Anne Short-

inco, York, was a guest over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Butt.

Miss Mae Jacob, Philadelphia, was a recent guest at the home of her father E. E. Jacobs.

Sunday, June 13, the 50th anniversary of the installation of the Rev. P. H. Herner will be celebrated at Emmanuel Reformed church.

Pvt. George Guise has been honorably discharged from a hospital in North Carolina and is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Guise. He saw service in Iceland where he was injured.

TO WED PILOT

Philadelphia, June 2 (AP)—Peggy McCloskey, former Philadelphia District Girls' golf champion, will become the bride of Lieutenant Joseph R. Iner, Jr., Navy pilot who rescued Captain Eddie Rickenbacker in the South Pacific. Iner formerly played football at Davis Elkins college. The marriage will take place next month.

Heiress Dies In 12-Story Fall

New York, June 2 (AP)—Mrs. Janet Snowden Gill, 29, twice-married daughter of the late James H. Snowden, oil millionaire, and the wife of an Army captain on leave, plunged to her death today from the 16th floor of the Savoy-Plaza hotel.

She was the former wife of the late Don Francesco Caravita, Prince di Sirignano, Italian sportsman.

Her nude body was found on a fourth floor extension of the hotel shortly before her husband, Capt. William Sherman Gill, an Army intelligence officer, planned to leave for Washington.

ANTI-STRIKE BILL REACHES HOUSE FLOOR

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Behind the cry that "now is the time for action," the House Military committee carried to the floor today its fight for an anti-strike law.

Despite opposition voiced by spokesmen for five government agencies yesterday, Chairman May (D-Ky.) declared the committee would demand House action today.

Rep. Colmer (D-Miss.) announced he had been assured by Speaker Rayburn of recognition to call up the measure, known as the Smith-Connally bill, this afternoon, and added he expected debate to last several days.

"There is no sense in waiting any longer," May said. "The coal strike is upon us and the people are demanding that Congress do something about it."

Subpoena Power

While too late to stop a strike already in progress, he added, the legislation would prevent future walkouts and would make illegal any continued work stoppage in the coal mines so long as the government operated them.

It would outlaw strikes in government-operated plants, requires a 30-day cooling off period and a secret ballot of workers before strikes could be called in other war industries, make unions file annual financial and membership statements, and strengthen the power of the War Labor Board to deal with labor disputes.

A section written into the bill and admittedly aimed at John L. Lewis would empower the board to subpoena witnesses. Lewis has refused to deal with the board in the coal controversy.

See Okay For Trade Agreement Powers

Washington, June 2 (AP)—Legislation continuing the administration's reciprocal trade agreements act in unaltered form for two more years rode toward apparent final Senate approval today on a flood tide of votes which already have swamped two opposition proposals.

Acting Democratic Leader Lister Hill (Ala.) predicted passage by mid-afternoon as a result of a unanimous agreement to limit debate on remaining amendments.

If all amendments are defeated—and Hill declared none had a chance following the powerhouse majorities ruled up by administration forces yesterday on two test votes—the resolution continuing the trade law will go to the White House unaltered from the form in which it passed the House.

Its approval by the President was a forgone conclusion.

"Brand New Circus" Going To New York

Philadelphia, June 2 (AP)—The circus is going back to New York—in the Continental manner.

Roland Butler, press agent for Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus, announced here that "a brand new circus" called "Spangles-Continental," will open June 16 in Madison Square Garden, while the traditional show continues its road tour under the big top as originally planned. The circus is playing in Philadelphia now.

Colorado School of Mines at Golden, Colorado, athletic teams are known as the "Orediggers."

You May Never Have To Take Another Laxative

Most constipated people might be as regular as clockwork—if they would only stop worrying—stop being nervous—take more exercise—watch their diet—and get up mornings an hour or so earlier to give bowels time to act. But who can or wants to do all this?

So—the next best thing is to keep the bowels working as regularly and comfortably as we can—and that's where good old Espo-tabs come in. Why? Because you may take Espo-tabs at night and expect results in the morning when you get up without waiting around—because they do not move the bowels so violently as to leave you feeling weak and washed-out.

AND because they help give the grand, comfortable, satisfying type of movement that makes the spirits soar—and what more, constipated person could ask for more! Get Espo-tabs at your drugist today and take as directed, 25¢.

336 CARLOADS OF SPUDS BREAK PHILA. FAMINE

Philadelphia, June 2 (AP)—Philadelphia went on a potato binge today.

They were dishing up the spuds in every conceivable way—mashed, boiled, fried, creamed, scalloped, lyonnaise, French fried, shoestring, in salads, and even raw.

It was the old story of supply and demand. The once lowly spud was scarce for months; then non-existent. And when he made his comeback, he was king of all the vegetable kingdom.

The city's potato famine was broken yesterday, to the tune of 336 carloads, which broke down into 11,760,000 pounds or about 47,000,000 spuds, enough to give everyone in Pennsylvania's metropolis 23½ apiece.

Prices Drop
Prices began to drop at once, and OPA officials predicted many dealers would be selling under the new ceiling prices which go into effect today. It's a buyer's market now, not a seller's, they said.

Of the 336 cars arriving, 176 were unloaded and thrown on the retail market at once. They came from Florida, South Carolina, California, Georgia, Texas and Mississippi. There was even a carload of seed stock from Maine, which also has been scarce.

Don Cameron, trainer of Count Fleet, was offered the most talked-about colt of the season for nothing when it was just a youngster. Cameron didn't think it was worth the feed bills!

Harrisburg, June 2 (AP)—Accepting appointment to an advisory council organized by national Republican Chairman Harrison E. Spangler to study post-war production.

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, June 2 (AP)—Steps are being taken by the networks to comply with the chain broadcasting regulations of the Federal Communications commission, whose right to set them up recently was upheld by the Supreme Court. The rules are expected to become effective June 14, or immediately thereafter. Basically, the rules eliminate exclusive control by networks of certain choice hours on affiliated stations, and give the stations a "free agent" say as to which network shows they will carry and from what network.
